

"The Last Prohibition Witnesses" DVD sales smashing success

The opening sales of "The Last Prohibition Witnesses" was beyond our expectations. A huge Western New York and Pennsylvania crowd turned out at The Buffet held at JCC in Olean, Sunday July 19 to view the screening and lined up to buy the DVD. Sales are expected to climb with the DVD now online.

And to add to good news the second DVD." Prohibition" a WAR and Little Chicago production is expected to be ready for national TV this fall. The 2 hour show is already getting offers from national firms. The sales could go through the roof by Christmas.

Behind these is the movie "Little Chicago" which should be getting underway after the Super documentary is sold.

Little Chicago which is a production company is expected to have more DVDS in the future.
